

Norene Rose Fell

September 11, 1937 - March 4, 2024

Norene Rose Fell, a woman of remarkable passion and a self-taught Linnaean Taxonomist, left this world on March 4, 2024, leaving behind a legacy that touched the hearts of all who knew her. Born on September 11, 1937, in Muskegon, MI, to Adolph August Pierre Domont and Norah Johnson, the last of four daughters. Norene's life journey was a testament to her love for God, Christ, and the awe-inspiring wonders of His creations.

In her youth, Norene was an active member of the Girl Scouts and Walther League, finding solace and community in her church. She graduated from Muskegon High School, laying the foundation for a life characterized by curiosity, kindness, and an unyielding spirit. Embarking on her professional journey, Norene began as a bookbinder and librarian's assistant. After her marriage to Forrest Alton Fell on January 9, 1967 her deep connection with animals led her to become the proud owner of Crestview Boarding Kennel in the Charlotte area. For 34 years, she welcomed over 10,000 customers, caring not only for their dogs and cats but also raising prizewinning German Shepherds alongside her beloved husband, Forrest.

In 1984, Norene graduated from Lansing Community College, transitioning to a fulfilling role as a substitute teacher. A woman of many talents, she was a gifted musician and writer, sharing her love for music by actively participating in her church choir and serving as the accompanist on piano and organ.

Norene's commitment to her faith and her community was unwavering. Her studies in Linnaean Taxonomy, the study of the genus and species of all living things, reflected her awe for God's creation, as she saw science as a pathway to understanding the divine.

Noreen is survived by her children, Aaron (Shannon) Fell, Michael (Carla) Fell and Sarah (Jaymie) Walters; grandchildren, Robert, Angie, Michael Jr., Jacob, Jessica, Andrew and Alexandyr. She was predeceased by her husband, Forrest; grandson, Daniel; and sisters, Nancy Rudick, Delphine Poellott and Arlene Rose (her twin sister).

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Norene's life during the visitation at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte on Thursday, March 7, from 2 to 4:00 PM and 6 to 8:00 PM. The funeral service will be held on Friday, March 8, 11:00 AM at Pray Funeral Home. Norene will be laid to rest beside her husband in West Carmel Cemetery. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to First Lutheran Church of Charlotte or Siren Eaton Shelter, organizations that held special places in Norene's heart.
