“ Pam was a beautiful soul...sweet in nature and fiercely loyal and dedicated to her children. It was joyful to get to see her interact and reminisce with her daughter Dawn. My heart is with all those suffering with her departure.

“ So sorry to read of Pam's passing. She was a great co-worker and asset you our office staff. Her weekly treats were so delicious and appreciated by both the front office and the warehouse staff. She was so positive, upbeat and one of the kindest people I know! Prayers for all of her family. She spoke so highly of her kids, they meant the world to her.

*You will be missed,

“ Pam was always such a girly girl when we were growing up. All our other cousins were boys, and she and I were the only girls. Years later, she earned my respect because she turned out to be a good cook and baker, as well as a good farm wife, taking care of the animals and her family. She made great cinnamon rolls. She always was bubbly and cheerful - nothing could get her down. I know she is in a better place now, but we will miss her so.
