

Patricia Ann O'Dell

February 5, 1932 - November 2, 2011

Patricia Ann O'Dell, 79, passed away on November 2, 2011. Patricia was born February 5, 1932 in Everett, Washington to Thomas Burton and Cora (Luce) Frye. She lived in California for most of her life, moving to Michigan in 1968, and the Vermontville area in 1972. Patricia was a Deputy Sheriff, a nurse, and owner of Pat's Sugar Hut Café in Vermontville. She was a strong-willed person who always spoke her mind, but was also a very caring person who loved all children and lived her life in service to others providing many volunteer services in the area. Patricia was a favorite at Thornapple Manor, sharing her fun and humorous nature with the staff. She is survived by her significant other, Denzel W. Mann; her children, son, Monte (Theresa) O'Dell; daughter Shirley (Scott) Biggs of Bowling Green, KY; and son, Mike (Jamie) O'Dell of Charlotte; sister, Vinnie Sue Pinzon of Germany; granddaughter, Christi (John) Perich; grandson Tyler O'Dell; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold O'Dell; granddaughter, Niki O'Dell and her brother, William Boyd. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, November 5, 2011, at the Vermontville Methodist Church where she was a member. Officiating will be Rev. Kathy Smith. The family will receive guests on Saturday, November 5, 2011 from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., just prior to the service. Memorial contributions may be made to Thornapple Manor. Online condolences may be made at www.prayfuneral.com. Arrangements by Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte, Michigan.

“ I know how hard it is to lose your mother. It has been 6 years since my mother passed away and I still think of her everyday. Just think of her smiling down on you and enjoying herself. If you need anything just call.
