

Patricia Lou Page

April 20, 1930 - April 13, 2014

Patricia Lou Page, 83, of Charlotte, formerly of Orleans, MI, died peacefully on Sunday, April 13, 2014. Patricia was born April 20, 1930, in Lansing, the daughter of Lawrence and Myrtle (Marshall) Brown. The family lived in Vermontville, MI before moving to Lansing, where Patricia attended Eastern High School. Following her graduation, she married Robert Page, and she raised their two sons while Robert worked at Oldsmobile. Patricia and Robert spent 24 years spending winters in Mesa, AZ and summers at Long Lake in Ionia County until moving to Charlotte in 2004. Patricia was an avid bowler, enjoying her time in leagues both in Charlotte and Lansing. In her early years, she was a member of the Eastern Star. Patricia also volunteered her time with Meals on Wheels in Charlotte. She is survived by her sons, Jerry (Shelley) Page of Alto, MI and Jeffrey (Irene) Page of Charlotte; grandchildren, Katrina, Kristin and Scott (Angie) Page; 2 great-grandchildren; sisters, June and Jane; and brother, Darryl. She was predeceased by her husband, Robert in 2006; 2 brothers, Milton and Lawrence; and sister, Carolyn. Graveside services will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, May 10, 2014 at Deepdale Memorial Gardens in Lansing. Memorial contributions may be made to Eaton Community Palliative Care. Arrangements by Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.prayfuneral.com

“ To Patricia's family: You have my deepest sympathies. May your fond memories of her bring you comfort and may the "God of all comfort" (2 Cor 1:3,4) sustain you through this difficult time. He has lovingly promised the resurrection (Acts 24:15)where we can see our dear loved ones again. May these Scriptures bring you peace and hope.
