“ Pat, You were my very first friend and a good big brother. My heart breaks to think I will no longer hear your laugh,remnisce about the past or share another family moment with you.Our family will forever have a void now that you're gone. I was not ready to say good-bye but will slowly accept what has to be. My only solace in God welcoming you home is that you are now truly happy. You will forever be missed by those you left behind but always as close as a memory. Thanks for the memories!

“ Dear relatives and friends in Michigan... Just learned the news of Pat's passing from Mooney cousins Mary J. and Cathy Richard, whose family has hosted Pat and Virginia Mooney and family here, on visits to Bangor, Maine (where our shared grandparents landed from Ireland)... Our condolences to Teri (whom we've not met)- We're so sorry for your loss...we understand that Pat had been quite ill. His suffering now is no more. God bless and keep you, dear. We feel certain that Pat will never be far away from you, and his mom and dad and brother and sisters. To Mom and Dad (Pat and Virginia) and family: We love you...Our love and hugs go out to you, and embrace you. We can't imagine how you must feel, but know for certain that God, in His Wisdom, is using your boy's passing to bless others (in ways only God and Pat can know), both on Earth and in Heaven. We wish we could be there physically, with you all at this time... Just know that we join you in spirit. We trust and hope that Emily will lend her beautiful voice to the occasion, to honor her brother, and to fill everyone's hearts! Peace and Love to you all... --

“ So sorry for your loss Teri and family. TO THOSE I LOVED and THOSE WHO LOVED ME When I am gone release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do you must not tie yourself to me with tears, be happy that we have had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now itâ€™s time I travel alone. So, grieve a while if grieve you must---then let your grief be comforted by trust. Itâ€™s only for awhile that we must part so bless the memories in your heart. I wonâ€™t be far away for life goes on--so, if you need me call and I will come. Though you can not see or touch me---Iâ€™ll be near and if you listen with your heart you will hear all my love around you soft and clear. And then when you must come this way alone---Iâ€™ll greet you with a smile and--- Welcome home. Let his memories warm your heart forever.

“ Dear Virginia, Pat and Family We were shocked and saddened when Emily called to tell us of Patrick's passing. Words cannot express our sorrow for losing one so young. God Bless him. One thing we can be sure of, he is with our Blessed Lord and there is no more suffering. How awful it must be not to be able to draw a breath!!! Please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. If there is anything we can do from this long distance, be sure to let us know. We love you.
