

Phyllis Roxanne Baker

June 15, 1939 - October 4, 2025

P. Roxanne (Rocheleau) Baker, 86, of Charlotte, passed away peacefully on October 4, 2025, surrounded by family. Roxanne was born and raised in Cheboygan, Michigan and built a life centered around family, hard work, and community. Alongside her husband, Don, she owned and operated the M-50 Party Store for many years, creating a welcoming place for friends and neighbors. Following the sale of the store, she began a successful career in real estate, where she continued to serve her community with dedication, warmth, and a feisty spirit.

Roxanne found joy in the simple pleasures of life- reading, dancing, and spending cherished time with her children and grandchildren. She was a proud and active member of the St. Mary and St. Ann Community and the Eaton Area Senior Center, where she formed many dear friendships over the years.

Roxanne is survived by her children, Mark Newman, Todd (Katie) Newman, Donna (Dan) Walker, and Noel (Chasade) Baker; three step-sons, Rod, David, and Brian Baker; her beloved grandchildren, Bobbi Jo (Lonnie), Jake (Brittany), Jillian (John), and Konrad; great-grandchild, Luke; sister, Donna Beachnau. Roxanne is preceded in death by her parents, Oscar and Alfreda (Bellrose) Rocheleau; siblings, Gordon Rocheleau and Collin Rocheleau.

“ I want to start by saying that Roxanne was an amazing woman. My name is Laura, and I had the privilege of caring for and getting to know Roxanne for the past three years while she lived at Eaton County Health and Rehabilitation Services in Charlotte. I'm a registered nurse, so not only did I care for Roxanne, but I called her a friend as well.

During the time I got to know her, I would say that Roxanne was one of the kindest, most beautiful souls I've ever known. She shared so much with me about her life, and in turn, took an interest in mine as well, beyond just the fact that I was one of her nurses.

Roxanne always took the time to ask about how I and my family were doing. We shared so many jokes and so much laughter during our time together, and even some tears as well

While Roxanne is gone, I can assure you that she will never be forgotten. Rest peacefully, my beautiful friend. May the lord keep you in his hands.
