“ There are more than I can mention or count times that something just got under my skin about Randy Pelto. I believe he was just as stubborn as me, but I just couldn't stay mad, cause he'd crack a smile or he'd share a piece of his prized candy. Sometimes he'd give me the saddest face and man I'd just melt. I'm so glad Randy went to church with our family because Randy was and is part of the family. The loss hurts even today just in remembering. I'm so glad he loved the Lord and experienced 1st hand his ministry, and love of Jesus, as did all the brothers and sisters of the church. It seemed only fitting our church was there to send him off. He is resting now thank God for his burden was certainly not light. I love you Randy Scott Pelto, and yup, I am gonna let you give me a ride on your new bike, and this is big as I don't like motorcycles, but for you yeah I'll hop on and we'll ride the streets of gold! God Bless his family he has left behind and comfort them. I respect his Sister Sue even with her many responsibilities she was always there for her brother.ALWAYS! Laura.
