“ I'm am very sorry for your loss, and sorry I did not know Raymond as I understand he was a wonderful man. My grandfather was Garfield Black (Hazel's brother and Raymond's uncle). My mother is Garlyce (Black) Keyes and she shared Raymond's obituary notice with me. You are in our prayers. ~Sharon

“ Dear Ray and Joy, We read your father's obituary and want to send you our condolences. We have yet to loose a parent to death so we can't say we know what you are going through but we have lost our grandparents so we know what your children are experiencing. We hope that you have many fond memories of the years spent with him and that it will make the time that you have with your own family even more precious. Hello to all of your children and grandchildren. Love, Steve and Nancy Shaver

“ I'm so sad to learn Uncle Ray has passed. I remember visiting him and Zola when we lived on Wheaton Road there in Charlotte. There was always a sense of happy calm at their house. Good memories. Of course, I do remember R & Z visiting us. I remember sneaking a listen on the stairs while Uncle Ray would give special instruction to Stan and David on various pool-playing techniques. Hilarious! Uncle Ray knew how to have a good time, and he certainly seemed to enjoy sharing that particular skill. He is missed.

“ *SO SORRY TO HEAR ABOUT THE PASSING OF UNCLE RAY. OUR HEARTS GO OUT TO AUNT ZOLA AND TO ALL OF YOU. ITS A SHAME THAT THE MILES, YEARS AND CAREERS HAVE INTERFERED WITH THE BLACK-BARTLETT GET TOGETHERS WE'VE HAD IN THE PAST. UNCLE RAY GAVE ME MY FIRST 2 PIECE POOL CUE THAT HE USED TO USE (QUITE WELL BY THE WAY) AT OUR HOUSE ON WHEATON ROAD IN CHARLOTTE. UNCLE RAY AND UNCLE TOM (BARTLETT) USED TO COME OVER AND SPEND COUNTLESS HOURS IN THE BASEMENT "TEACHING" STAN (EASTMAN) AND I HOW TO USE OUR OWN POOL TABLE. GREAT TIMES WERE HAD AND WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU DURING THIS TIME. YOU WILL BE IN OUR THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS ESPECIALLY NOW AND ALWAYS IN THE FUTURE.
