“ Kari, I am so sorry for the loss of your father. I can't imagine the void you are going to feel. You guys took such good care of him the last few years and you will cherish those years that he was right there with you. I hope all the wonderful memories you made keep him close at heart. He is in your mom's arms and they are dancing right now as they celebrate being reunited once again. I am here for you today and always. Love you, Shelly
