“ I am so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. I will always remember him as a young boy whose mom insisted that he and his brother Bill learn how to "social dance." Even though I was only a couple of years older, I was honored to be able to teach both of them and watch them do so well. I am so happy that he continued to dance throughout his life. The last time I saw him, he was still "two-stepping it" and having fun on the dance floor.

I always got a big kick out of seeing Bob dancing at Frontier Days. He was a natural and laughed when he told me his Dad made him pay for his own dance classes at the Campbell Dance Studio.
