Amazing life recap!!!

That was an amazing tribute to Rob. I am so sorry for your loss. He was a wonderful man. He always used to stop and talk to me when I worked at Admiral by the tracks. We talked about his kids and family. It was when he had been fighting cancer the first time. That broke my heart to see such a nice guy fighting cancer. It always seems to hit the good ones. My heart goes out to all his family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all. Thoughts, prayers, and hugs to you all.

Rob was one of a kind, he was kind hearted, funny, and has went through some major things but got through them and made it, such a great guy who adored his wife and loved his babies, his little sis meant the world to him and his parents were everything ❤️ RIP ROB AKA "BOBERT"

I spent entire summers growing up with Rob. Although he was 2 years younger than me Robbie's fearlessness was a wonder to experience. I would have liked to have kept up with him more, but my childhood bud became a man who made a real good life.

“ So many memories of you guys living on Washington Street and you being that wild teenager. It was memorable watching you grow into a decent adult that took marriage and children very serious. It's been a pleasure knowing you, Rob. Always my brother from another mother ❤️
