Was a roommate of Rob's at FSU. Searched for him randomly and found this tonight. Your family is in my prayers. He did have an incredible laugh and a voice built for hosting a show. I'll see you again bro. Wish we stayed in better contact.

“ Nobody expects to have to write this kind of thing about one of their best friends. Losing Rob, especially at such a young age, is a sorrow that will continue to reverberate for a long time. My sincerest condolences to Mike and Martha, Jake, Chloe, Lucas, and all his other friends and family. A few memories of Rob that will stick with me: Road tripping to Syracuse to see his beloved #1 ranked FSU Seminoles play, standing knee deep in the Straits of Mackinac drinking beers and talking about life all night, and the quiet times after a party broke up, and it was just a few good friends enjoying times they thought would never end.

There's so much to share about Rob that it feels like an injustice to only give him a paragraph. He loved military history and technology, especially naval. He enjoyed building online communities and bringing strangers together. He was an avid bowler. There were so many things over his 36 years that deserve to be mentioned, but the most important are these: he was a good guy who loved his family and friends, and treated people right.

Rest in peace Rob, you will be missed.

“ There are no words that can be spoken to change the reality of all of this. Although I did not really get to know Rob over the years - I loved him because he was your son. I am here for all of you as I know your family is now changed forever - please know you are all loved and supported as was Rob. Hugs, Val
