“ Bob had such a clever, dry sense of humor. As one of his health care providers at the end of his life, I feel especially blessed that he could bring a genuine smile to my face. I loved Bob very much, and will miss him. Take care all, Love, Jamie Huston

“ I feel so blessed to have gotten the chance to know Bob. He always made me laugh when we were together. Every time I make a super special sandwich I always think of our late night snacks together. My love, prayers and hugs to his wonderful wife Joyce and the entire family during this difficult time of saying, "See you later." May your tears of sorrow today become tears of laughter as you remember all the great times together filled with many funny situations.
