“ I think John Oxenham says it best, “For death begins with life's first breath And life begins at the touch of death”. As we mold into our physical beings we begin to wither away, because one year gained is truly one year lost. At 73, a man, who I conceived to be truly great reached zero and was finally born. Born, to a God which he believed. This man, my Grandfather, the greatest ever to be, was finally free. Free from the hour glass which once held his soul. Now able to never grow old.

“ I will always have very fond memories of my Uncle Bob. He was one of a kind. It was such a joy to go out to the farm. He always enjoyed showing us the baby pigs, or the cows. Horses! There was always something new to see. Diane would teach me to can veggies. The memories of him coming in from the barn, always smiling will live on in my heart. Thank You all for allowing me to share in his last days with you, and him. Thank You Julia for always making that phone call to me. I Love You All, Linda

“ Starr, How does a person get thru such a loss Starr, I don't know. I do know that you were so very special to him that hopefully that will be a comfort to you in itself. When I lost my mom-in-law this year it has helped me to know that. It just still is not a reality to me that I don't have parents because I feel them with me everyday. It's funny the older we get, we realize what your dad already realized a long time ago, LOVE LIFE, LIVE LIFE and LAUGH because life is too short. We all know how he did that. I know your dad knows you will carry on his outlook because you are the most like him. I believe your dad was smiling yesterday when he saw us hold each other right in front of him. My love & prayers for strength are with you Starr. Love, Brenda

“ Diane, I am sorry about your loss and the void in your heart now that Bob is gone. I know how special of a man & husband he was to you. Always stay on that pedestal he had you on. You were so special to him. There should be more people that impact others lives even without knowing it like you two have impacted mine & I will always remember the warmth from his hugs when I'd see him & his laughter was like no other. Even thru the difficult years of not being a part of his daughters' life, he & you have ALWAYS made me feel like I've never missed a lick. I hope the hole in your heart fills in with the love from the rest of the family and the memories you share with each other NEVER are quiet! Love to you, Brenda

“AUTUMN RAIN "Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond's gilt on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die." Diane & Family, Our deepest sympathy in the loss of Bob. Catherine & Berlyn Shattuck (Grand Ledge, MI)

“ To the entire Mominee family, especially Lady Di . . . About this man you called your husband, best friend, your father, your grandfather, brother, brother-in-law and son. He had wonderful sense of humor, was kind to all whose paths he crossed, one of the hardest working men I will ever know ~ and what a true blessing it is to know he touched each of our lives. I can't recall a time when he didn't make me laugh -what a gentle soul! Growing up just down the road, I saw a true sense of family in the entire Mominee clan, and I am certain you all have a little or a lot of 'Mr. Mominee' in your hearts.
