

Robert Carl Taylor

March 10, 2012

Robert C. Taylor, 89, of Charlotte, MI, passed away March 10, 2012, a self-described “bon vivant” and “raconteur” (someone who tells great stories and enjoys life). He was born in Michigan City, Indiana. Bob was a WWII Air Force Veteran, graduate of the University of Dayton and a Federal (DSA) Employee. Mr. Taylor previously resided in Grand Ledge, MI, Sun City, FL, Alexandria, VA, Battle Creek, MI and Dayton, OH. He was predeceased by his wife of 66 years, Jane. He is survived by son Tom (Connie) Taylor; grandchildren, Mary and Sarah Taylor, Abigail and Andrew (Emily) Jenkins, Susan, Matt (Celina) and Steve (Brandi) Bruch, as well as three great grandchildren. The family would like to thank his wonderful caregivers at Independence Village, Grand Ledge, Sensations Memory Care, Charlotte and Eaton County Healing and Recovery Center. Services will be 2:00 pm, Tuesday, March 13, 2012 at Pray Funeral Home with Rev. Sue Trowbridge officiating. Visitation will be 12:00 to 2:00 pm prior to the service. Interment will follow at Maple Hill Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer’s Association. Arrangements by Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte, MI.

“ I wanted to take a moment to let you know how much of an impact your dad, Bob, and mom, Jane, made on my daughter, Bailey Pullum. (Bailey is a server at Independence Village.) Bailey came to know both Bob and Jane during their time there. She so enjoyed them, their stories, their shared love, and most especially, Bob’s drawings of various dinosaurs on his meal tickets. They both made "work" fun and enjoyable for Bailey. Please know that Bailey will always remember them with great fondness. God’s blessings to you and yours. Jill Pullum (on behalf of Bailey Pullum)

“ Tom and family Was saddened to hear of the recent loss of your Father. Yes, he was a great story teller and had a memory that was amazing. He held many things in his heart which made him extra special. He along with your Mother were wonderful friends with our family and both will always be missed.

“ The limited time we got to spend with your family and Bob was a treasured moment in my life. Bob shared many wonderful memories with me about his life and family. He was always respectful and full of compliments and smiles. He will truly be missed from his extended family at Sensations. Our thoughts and prayers are with you through this difficult time. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to meet such a wonderful gentleman.

“ My heart is truly broken to read of Bob's passing tonight. I was his caregiver at Sensations and really loved Bob. He was so sweet, funny, and had so many neat stories to share. I will really miss him. I won't have the option of attending his funeral service as I will have to be at work Tuesday, but please know that if I could be, I would be. Condolences and love to the family. I am sure he is now reunited with his wife whom he missed so much and mentioned often.
