

Ronald Gottlieb Maul

December 21, 1941 - October 13, 2023

Ronald "Ron" Gottlieb Maul, a man who was one of a kind and always playing the perfect prank, died surrounded by his loving family on Friday, October 13, 2023. Ron 81, of Lansing, was born on December 21, 1941, in Saginaw, MI. the son of Mary and John Goosens. Upon graduating from high school Ron went on to earn a Degree in Insurance. On September 14, 1963, Ron married Patricia Mae Wressell and the couple began creating their legacy. With his career in Insurance as he climbed the ranks the family moved around the entire state and country. In 1988 Ron retired from Insurance and opened his own company called Hickory Dickory Dock Woodcraft. With this job he was able to do his biggest passion in life which was woodworking. Ron was also a very talented Pilot, in his eyes. He had many hours spent flying around the world while playing Flight Simulator on his PC. Other hobbies that he enjoyed were painting, playing golf, riding his bicycle, spending time at the family camper in Saranac, and anything sports, especially the Michigan State Spartans. Above all his proudest accomplishment in life was his marriage to Patricia and the beautiful family they created.

Ron is survived by his children, Shaundree (Jerry) Cassidy, and Jason (Heather) Maul; grandchildren, Jamie (Glen) Irby, Sarah Lawens, Josh (Alex) Maul, Brandon (Tia) Lawens, Jacob (Vincent) Maul, and Cody Cassidy; 11 great-grandchildren; and the countless wild animals that he fed in his backyard. He was predeceased by his loving wife of 57 years, Patricia; and his parents.

Friends are encouraged to support Ron's family by sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. There will be no services for Ron at this time. If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to the Parkinson's Foundation. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.
