

Roxanne Louise Gaedert

March 29, 1949 - February 16, 2024

Roxanne Louise Gaedert, a sweet, caring woman who enjoyed making everyone around her laugh, died peacefully with her family by her side on Friday, February 16. She was born March 29, 1949 in Charlotte to Dale and Dolores (Johnson) Cloar. Roxanne married an adventurous, witty man, John R. Gaedert, in April 1973, and together they loved to travel, entertain others, and enjoy their family. With a wonderful, off the top of her head sort of wit, Roxanne always got everyone around her smiling and laughing at the silliest things. Family was the center of her world, she loved taking care of her husband, children, and grandchildren, but also entertaining and hosting special events like 4th of July celebrations for their entire neighborhood. Knowing how hard loss was on families, Roxanne was always compassionate to others during these difficult times and made special efforts to cook and bring them meals.

Roxanne wouldn't want anyone to whine about missing her, just enjoy a glass of wine and enjoy good memories of her. She is survived by her children, Brinda (Gary) Ridenour, Cindy Gaedert-Gearhart (Tal Gearhart), and Johnny Gaedert; grandchildren, Gary Ridenour Jr. (Shelby), Carter Wing, Jersey Gaedert, Dawson Wing, Che Woods, and CJ Brown; two great-grandchildren, Tucker and Sage Ridenour; and sister, Annette Bruce; and nieces and nephews and her beloved dog Snickers. She was predeceased by the love of her life, John Gaedert in 2012; step-daughter, Rebecca; and brother-in-law,

Mike Bruce.

Friends are encouraged to support Roxanne's family by attending services or sharing memories on her Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Visitation is Sunday, March 3, 2-5:00 p.m. at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. Memorial Services are Monday, March 4, 11:00 AM at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte with Pastor John Bailey officiating. “ I was lucky enough to live across the street from John and Roxy. They were the best neighbors. They both would make you laugh and we would always have a good time with them. She will be missed but she is with her beloved John again. My prayers and thoughts are with her family while they go thru this loss of a bright star.
