“ I remember Rus and Johnny as little boys....swimming in the summer, sledding in the winter. Rus would get so tan and had the most amazing green eyes. They were happy and fun. I will always remember his kindness and his humor. The boys would fight and wrestle but loved eachother tremendously. I'll never forget my childhood with the boys. God Bless you Russ and I know u will take care of my son Kyle who also died of cancer. We talked about this the week before you died and u promised to watch over him, I thank u for that. He was 20 when he went to Heaven. Cancer is the worst and takes way too many beautiful lives. God Bless and much love lil bro, Prudie💔
