

Ruth Jordan Anderson

October 5, 1910 - March 3, 2007

Ruth Jordan Anderson 96, of Delray Beach, Florida, died Saturday, March 3, 2007. Mrs. Anderson was born October 6, 1910 in Big Rapids, MI, the daughter of Fred and Luella (Sprague) Jordan, who were both of Eaton County Pioneer families. She was married to Ray Anderson for many years. They made their home in Vermontville where they were both active in community affairs. In 1971 the Andersons moved to make their permanent home in Boynton Beach, FL. In 1989 she purchased an apartment in Abbey Delray, a life care community, where she retired until her death. She was a member of Jonathon Dickinson Chapter of the D.A. R. and the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 65, both of Delray Beach. She was a member of the Auxiliary of Bethesda Memorial Hospital of Boynton Beach, having contributed over 3000 hours as a volunteer worker. She was a life member of the Eastern Star Chapter #342 and the Historical Society, both of Vermontville. She was proud of her membership in the society of Flagon & Trenchers where eligibility for membership in the Society requires having an ancestor who was a Colonial Tavern Keeper before the year of 1776. She is survived by friend Audrey Hartenburg and her family, including Julie Tews, Gretchen Pretty, Rachel Myers and Kurt Hartenburg; and friend Robert L. Beystum of Kalamazoo. She was preceded in death by her husband Ray Anderson in 1979. Funeral services will be 11:00 a.m. Monday, April 23, 2007 at First Congregational Church of Vermontville, MI with Rev. Rich Mitterling officiating. Interment will be at Woodlawn Cemetery in Vermontville. Visitation will be 3-5 p.m. Sunday, April 22, 2007 at Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte. Email
