

Sally Ann Garrett

April 21, 1942 - April 15, 2025

Sally Ann Garrett, passed away surrounded by her family on Tuesday, April 15, 2025, after a courageous 8-year cancer battle. Sally, 82, of Hillsdale, formerly of Potterville, was born on April 21, 1942, in St. Joseph, the daughter of Robert and Florence Yack. On November 9, 1962, Sally married Waitus Garrett and together the family created many cherished memories until his passing in 2019. Her working career began as a Nurse Aid, a job she truly loved but once she started having children needed a change. Sally then began working as a daycare provider and cook at a local church. Family meant the world to Sally; she loved family gatherings, BBQ's, sitting at the kitchen table watching the birds, talking, and enjoying the wild life while sipping on a cup of coffee. Christmas was a special time of year, as she loved everyone together to open their presents. Other hobbies that she enjoyed included doing puzzles, reading, and caring for others.

Sally is survived by her children, Carolyn (Dave) Rygg, Diana Garrett, William (Dawn) Garrett, and Todd Garrett; 10 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; siblings, Robert Yack, Roger Yack, Ray Yack, Janet Conner, and Doug Yack; She was predeceased by her husband of 56 years, Waitus; brother, Ronnie Yack; and her parents.
