“ Sandra was the warm smile that greeted me mornings at Shell, it wouldn't matter if she was having a bad day or if someone was being grumpy to her, she always smiled was pleasant and wished you a good day.
Her presence will be greatly missed, and I wish comfort and peace to the family.

“ From the first time I met her, Sandy and I were instant friends and have many great memories. From when she first moved to Michigan and wanted to go into town (Meijers) to watching her family then mine grow. She was always there for me and was always willing to lend a helping hand! To Sandy there were no strangers, only friends she hasn't met yet! She will truly be missed and so will her giblet gravy!!! I know heaven is shining a little brighter today because you're in it. Love you forever!❤️❤️

“ I will always be grateful for being given the gift of knowing and loving Sandy and the entire Slogeris family. One of the best side effects of buying my house was enjoying them as truly cherished neighbors and friends for over 5 years. I was embraced and welcomed immediately and the warmth, friendliness and compassion never waned. Hey, Sandy, make God some of that remarkable chicken soup!

*With all my love,
Charles*
