

Sara Jane Jewell

May 28, 1940 - May 16, 2023

Sara "Sally" Jane Jewell, a generous and kind woman, died peacefully on May 16, 2023 at the age of 82. Sally was born in Charlotte, MI on May 28, 1940 to Huey and Evelyn (Lawrence) Stall and lived her entire life in this community that she loved and devoted time to. In 1961 she married Floyd Jewell and together they raised two sons. As a dedicated wife and mother, Sally had a spirited personality with a quiet and calm presence, and many wonderful gifts she shared with her family, including the gift of music that she shared with her beloved granddaughters. She enjoyed golf, bowling, singing in the GFWC (General Federation Women's Club) choir, and every opportunity she had to travel with her husband Floyd (finding casinos everywhere their adventures took them) until his passing in 2008. Dedicated to her community, Sally also spent much time volunteering for events at her church (Lawrence Avenue United Methodist), the HGB Gift Shop, and Mobile Meals helping with both scheduling and deliveries. After losing Floyd, she found enjoyment with a coffee group at Evelyn Bay coffee shop, and regular card game gatherings with her friends (which often included a good glass of wine).

Sally is survived by her sons, Timothy (Heather) Jewell, and Thomas (Nicole) Jewell; granddaughters, Lacy and Lauren; and several beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Floyd exactly 15 years to the day before her death; infant son, Alan; brother, Murray Stall; and sister, Marilyn Turner.

Friends are encouraged to support Sally's family by attending services or sharing memories on her Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Visitation is Friday, May 19, 2-4:00 PM and 6-8:00 PM at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte. Funeral services are Saturday, May 20, 2:00 PM at Pray Funeral Home with Laura Cooper officiating. A luncheon will follow the interment in the Pray Gardens behind Pray Funeral Home. The funeral will be webcast so you may watch it from any computer, smartphone, or mobile device that has internet access. Go to www.prayfuneral.com, click on Sally's tribute, then click on Photos and Videos from your computer (or Media from your smart phone). If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to Mobile Meals. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ To the Jewell Family... We are so very sorry to hear of Sally's passing. We met Sally when she moved to the condos in Sanstone and we were fortunate to have her as our next door neighbor. She liked our little shih tzu dog, Phoebe. Sally never passed up an opportunity to pet and play with Phoebe. Sally would walk across the front yard smiling her beautiful smile and play with the dog and visit with us. What a kind and generous lady! May all the memories you hold of times spent with Sally give you comfort and help sustain you through this most difficult time.

“ Sally was a sweet lady and always had a smile to give. She was always friendly and kind to me and loved a good laugh. Charlotte was her home and she supported her community in many ways~ all benefitting Charlotte. My husband and I loved how she would pull her little granddaughter around downtown in a wagon~ both smiling . This community will miss her like she was family.

“ Dear Tim and Tom, we are very sorry to hear that Aunt Sally has passed away. Uncle Floyd and Aunt Sally were such a big part of our lives as we were growing up. Many Christmas dinners, hunting trips, and gatherings. One odd thing I remember is that I believe the Methodist church had a rummage sale in the old Sears building downtown and I was helping Aunt Sally there. While I was arranging items on the tables there was a brown corduroy shirt that I liked. When we were done she gave it to me and I thought I was pretty cool and wore that shirt all the way home even though it was hot outside! Good memories. We are thinking of you all. All our love, Randy and Cindy Jewell
