

Schuyler Foster Heuser

May 4, 1995 - August 17, 2017

Schuyler Foster Heuser, 22, of Lansing (formerly of Vermontville) died August 17, 2017. He was born May 4, 1995 to Heidi Lynne Heuser and James Wilson Foster of Vermontville. Schuyler graduated from Maple Valley High School in 2013. He was a kind soul who wanted to help others who were struggling. His amazing artistic talent compelled him to draw from an early age with his increasing ability resulting in beautiful, intricate, surreal drawings that revealed his troubled soul.

Schuyler is survived by his parents, Heidi Heuser and James Foster; brothers Noah and Nicholas Heuser; and half-brothers Zachary and Abe Foster.

If desired, the family suggests memorial contributions to SIREN/Eaton Shelter. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Schuyler on his Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ I babysat Schuyler and his brother Noah on occasion when I was a teenager as they lived down the road from me. Schuyler was a free spirited little boy who was always well behaved. Even as a toddler he showed that he was creative and artistic. My deepest sympathy goes out to Heidi, Jim, Noah and the rest of their family for this tremendous loss they have experienced.

“ It was my privilege to be Schuyler's teacher. He was incredibly bright, very kind and respectful, and he had a unique and interesting perspective that I enjoyed. Please accept my deepest sympathies and condolences for the loss of such a young and promising young man.

“ I remember Schuyler as a child at Maplewood Elementary. I was a playground supervisor and watched him exit the building at recess every day as fast as he could run. He would leap to the top of the monkey bars almost at a single bound. One chilly day he stopped long enough to draw an amazing campfire with the sidewalk chalk. It made everyone smile as we pretended to feel the warmth. He was an exceptional child and I was saddened to hear that he is gone. My heart breaks for his family and friends that loved him. My condolences.

“ Appropriate words at this time are hard to find. The picture on this memory page is that of a handsome young man. We send our deepest sympathies to the Heuser Family. It has been a long time. We knew Schuyler as a peasant little boy at our chiropractic office years ago. We will keep you, Heidi and family in our prayers.

“Schuyler, I'm so sorry to hear about this. I just "liked" something you posted from a Wednesday and to hear now that you're gone, I'm speechless. I feel this pain all the way in Germany. I remember joking with you when I worked with you at JJs, and our opinions always agreed. I'm going to miss you!!!

“ I got the priveledge to work alongside Schulyer for the last couple years. I was devastated when I heard the news. Schulyer was such a pure soul with the most contagious smile. I am going to miss hearing him tell the most insane/crazy/intriguing facts at work. " You were one of my favorites," Schulyer. I'm going to miss you. ❤️ Gone but never forgotten.

“ I wrote this last night, when I finally allowed myself to feel. Posted on my FB page, it is the closest I can come to expressing my loss. I cry all over again every time I read it.

*I am sorry that I lost you
I love you so I am sorry so sorry Words have no depth to match ... this.
I will always love you my beautiful boy*

*Somewhere
In another time
we agreed
that I would lose you
why would we agree to this?
Yet I always knew
My soul-child*

*A hole
where you were vacant
my beautiful boy
so peaceful now
forever
now*

at least this is real

*All the beauty this earth has but not for you
never was it for you
All the beautiful things you created for what?
nothing
all is lost
I remember loving you as a child*

*we were so in love
the light of my life
then
no more
no more sadness
anger
emptiness helplessness
all is lost
forever with the emptiness inside me
now*

*But still beauty
kindness
love
you were so lovely and you didn't even know it*

Dad used to say that when I couldn't decide, ask Schuyler, he's the next most sensible one in the family what happened there?

*Surreal
All that's left
is emptiness
and fullness
a full vacancy in my heart
in my soul
Hopes
that maybe some day you would get your shit together someday, maybe you would meet someone amazing*

*No
you planned this all along, even though it terrified you I know you
my soul-child
I know
And I understand*

I just I just would have liked to say goodbye.

This can't be real, I gave him my rock star hat.. He was definitely a rock star!! Dang, Sky!!

So hard to understand, when this happens. The last time I saw Schuyler, he serenaded me with his beautiful guitar, while everyone was outside, by the firepit. I am so glad I had that brief glimpse of this beautiful soul. I'm so glad I stayed to listen. Gods blessings, dear young soul. I have missed the chance to really get to know you.

“ Schuyler was such a beautiful soul. I feel a strong connection to Schuyler. I loved him very much. I will love him forever. I am only comforted by knowing he is at peace now. I remember his big smile from when he was a little boy. He cared so much about others. I remember when he comforted me during a hard time. I will miss hearing his sweet voice. He reminds me of love. I know he is free now.
