

Sharon Kay Colbath-Sadler Craft

January 16, 1948 - September 8, 2025

Sharon Kay Colbath-Sadler Craft, 77, of Charlotte, a woman of great compassion and love for others, died peacefully on Monday, September 8, 2025. Sharon was born January 16, 1948 in Mason, the daughter of Raymond Samuel and Bernice (Lott) Colbath. She graduated from Mason High School in 1966 before going to work at Dart Container. Soon after she decided to change careers and moved on to General Motors in Lansing. Sharon will be remembered by many for her willingness to help others at all costs. Not only was she known to help people, but she also went out of her way to help animals, even if it meant holding up traffic to save a turtle from the road. Sharon was a lifetime member of Nashville Baptist Church, where she was active throughout the years in many capacities, including helping in the kitchen, organizing Bible school, or participating in Bible study. Outside of church, Sharon volunteered many hours helping the elderly and enjoying her various decoupage projects. Above all, Sharon loved her family.

She is survived by her husband of nearly 24 years, Rodger Craft; their shared children, Paula Sadler, Shannon (James) Henman, Brent (Kelly) Craft, and Mallory Craft; 8 grandchildren, Jeffrey Sadler-Purchis, Alexis Sadler-Purchis, Nicklaus Henman, Payton Henman, Riley Henman, Kaiden Craft, Kylie Craft and Hadley Craft; 2 great-grandchildren, Zayden and Quenlyn Aguinaga; sister, Bonnie Jordan; brother, Samuel Colbath and his partner May Pouzar; and several nieces and nephews. Sharon was preceded in death by her son, Derek Sadler and twin sister, Karon Pewoski.

“ Dear Rodger and family,
My condolences on the loss of Sharon. She was a wonderful, giving person who was always willing to give when she saw a need. She made a "penny ball" for my husband, David, and it still sits in the study here at home. I think of her every time I see it! I thank God for her life.
