

Shea John Nowlan

February 15, 1974 - July 16, 2025

Shea John Nowlan, 51 years of age, of Charlotte, MI, loved making others laugh, especially with jokes and random quotes. Shea died unexpectedly on July 16, 2025, leaving his family longing for more. Born in Southfield, MI on February 15, 1974 to Joe and Glory (Carlin) Nowlan, Shea grew up in a wonderful household. He graduated from De La Salle Collegiate High School in Warren, MI and went on to get his Bachelor's Degree in History from MSU, as he was an American History buff. Shea spent 26 years working in the wine industry, receiving significant accolades for his excellent sales. Afterwards, he transitioned to the insurance field and thrived, receiving many certifications over a short period of time. He was with his wife, then girlfriend, Dawn Levandusky for five years, before marrying in 2001, where they spent 24 years together building a beautiful family and life. No matter how busy life was, Shea always made time for his kids, his marriage, his family, and his friends. He enjoyed traveling around the world and experiencing different cultures, especially through tasting wine and visiting vineyards on trips to Italy, Napa Valley, and West Michigan. He greatly enjoyed fine dining, as he was a foodie at heart, and was always willing to try a new dish, no matter how foreign it may have seemed.

Shea leaves a hole in the hearts of those who knew and loved him, his zest for life, and his knack for making those around him feel seen and loved. He is survived by his wife, Dawn; children, Samuel and Jillian Nowlan; siblings, Shawn (Pharaneé Jiab) Nowlan, Michael Nowlan, and Colleen (Greg) Overla; his in-laws, Daniel and Glenda Levandusky; several beloved nieces and nephews; and many dear friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Glory Nowlan; and sister-in-law, Lolita Nowlan.

Friends are encouraged to support Shea's family by attending services or sharing memories on his Tribute Page at www.prayfuneral.com. Visitation is at Pray Funeral Home in Charlotte on Tuesday, July 22, 1-3:00 p.m. and 5-8:00 p.m. with a family affirmation service at 7:00 p.m. The family would love it if you could share your Shea stories during the affirmation service. A Rosary Service will follow at 8:00 p.m. at Pray Funeral Home. He will lie in state at St. Mary Catholic Church in Charlotte on Wednesday, July 23 at 10:00 a.m. with the Funeral Mass celebrated at 11:00 a.m., officiated by Rev. Fr. Dwight Ezop. The funeral will be webcast so you may watch it from any computer, smartphone, or mobile device that has internet access. Go to www.prayfuneral.com, click on Photos and Videos from your computer (or Media from your smart phone). If desired, memorial contributions are suggested to the family. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

“ Dear Nowlan family,
Oh my, what a loss to you Dawn, Sam, and Jillian. I am so very sorry, beyond what words can express. Shea was so proud of his family and enjoyed being with you. He was loving, expressive, genuine, and relational to those of us who made his acquaintance. Gone too soon!

“ I worked with Shea for a very short time at his new job in Grand Rapids. I found him to be a hard worker and successful salesman who respected his team and his clients. I'm happy that his last day at work was one of high achievement and made him happy. He deserved it, and now he's receiving his reward. May the good Lord bless and care for the rest of us.

“ Dawn, Sam and Jillian, when Shea talked about you, his eyes smiled! You could just tell how much he loved you all! He is so much like his parents with his personality, expressions and love for his family, siblings, friends and family! He also thought his in-laws were pretty fabulous! Especially when his father in law would cut the grass! The world will be a lot sadder without him in it!
