“ Sandy lived across the street from my husband and I. Started attending our church and we became fast friends. She was one of the most sweet humans to love and know. She loved baking and we reaped many of her treats. She even made our daughter Madelines wedding cake! We were also blessed to enjoy her delicious cranberry salad during the holidays.

We missed her once she moved to the Charlotte area. She left a big hole in the Bangor community. But now she gets to be with her loved ones in heaven. Until we meet again, RIP. It was a blessing to know you.

Sandy would walk into my beauty shop for a haircut with a big smile and a big hug for me! I would get another hug before she left. The last time I saw her at my church. She was visiting with a freind that Sunday. I got the best smile & hug again. Rest In Peace Sandy. We will miss you!
