

Timothy Floyd Hill

June 28, 1963 - August 27, 2018

Timothy "Timmy" Floyd Hill, a quiet, simple and gentle giant, died August 27, 2018. Timmy, 55, was born in Lansing, MI to Norman and Kay (Pelletier) Hill. He worked the last 9 years as an custodian at Peckham Industries. Timmy also spent some time doing landscaping with his father. He adored his parents, he devoted much of his life taking care of them before their passing. Timmy also enjoyed Netflixing, listening to loud rock and roll music and enjoying a good eat. Timmy is survived by his siblings, Karen (Leon) Shaw, and Tammy Hill; special cousin, Pam Drennan; and several nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, and brother, Gary Hill. Friends and family are encouraged to share memories of Timmy on his Tribute Page at www.PrayFuneral.com. The family is in the care of Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte.

Tribute Wall

“ I'm not sure who took me off my brothers post but they need to leave alone he's my brother and I loved him I am Greiving to we were not speaking but that does not give you the right to take my post down .

Tammy trudell - September 02, 2018 at 12:59 PM

“ Timmy my brother I will miss you so much and you will never be forgotten now you are with mom dad Gary grandma grandpa I will always love you , your sister R.i.p love you always Heavey metallove you for ever this hurts.rest in piece

Tammy trudell - September 01, 2018 at 07:04 PM

Am sorry. This is steve marlatt from along time ago. Was searching for whee he was now.

Steve Marlatt - July 04, 2023 at 05:48 PM

GD

“ You would never know this because I never said it or imagined saying it but you'll be missed. Don't think we ever once saw eye to eye. You were that uncle that picked on me, beat me down and treated as if I was your little brother. Hell your nickname for me was Pepe Le Pew. You weren't my roll model not even someone I wanted to be like but you were family! Never once did I tell you I loved you or hugged you when you lost your parents. I was five when you lost your brother and had no idea what kind of pain you must have been going through then. When I got older and saw the stuff you went through I realized you were just a gentle man in a big ass body. You would never hurt anyone. You got picked on in the worst kind of ways and I never knew that til a couple years ago. You were an alcoholic that hadn't pick up a drink in almost 20 years. I can't even stop smoking. You had your child hood home ripped out from under you in probably the worst way. I felt good about myself for helping you move but never once did I come visit you. I knew you were lonely and just went on with my own life. Now today I get the news that you passed away and I sit here with a heavy heart tears in my eyes wishing we could reminisce about your dad my grandfather. Thinking about all the times you just needed help with something to me was so simple but yet you just didn't know how to do it. I realize you can't read this and even if you were here still you didn't have Facebook. I'm getting this out there because the other nephews, nieces, cousins, aunts, uncle's, and sisters you leave behind I want them to know how I saw you. You are my grandparents son, my mom's brother, and my uncle. I love you Timmy and yes you will be miss more then you could ever imagine.

Greg Decker - August 30, 2018 at 07:08 PM

S!

REST IN PEACE MY WONDERFUL COUSIN...THE GREATEST OF MEMORIES...TILL WE MEET AGAIN !!!!GOD BLESS !!!!

SAMMY BISHOP !!!!! - August 31, 2018 at 08:16 AM

LB

“ I'll never forget the first time that we met. You and Tammy were our first friends when we moved on community st. All the fun and games hide and seek, kick the can and countless other games. Your family was just like our family. May Heavenly Father hold you close. You will be deeply missed. Xoxoxo

Lori Berry - August 30, 2018 at 03:22 PM

CK

“ I remember when Timmy worked by UPS every morning on my way to work there he was in his car with the head lights on waiting to go to work. (I think he was sitting there a hour) I always wanted to stop to say Hello but you know I was always running late I wish I had stopped 😞. RIP my friend

Cindy Kemp - August 29, 2018 at 08:08 PM

BR

“ Tim was a good person he will be miss lot I just can't believe he gone but I know he is in a better place fly high Tim Hill into we meet agian

Brandonsober - August 29, 2018 at 01:02 PM

PD

“ Dear Timmy,
These last couple of years have been very tough for you. I hope that you have finally found true peace. May you rest in eternal peace now and forever, you deserve it. Never forget that bucket of KFC we shared. That was a good day! Love ya Pam pam drennan - August 29, 2018 at 07:15 AM

“ JoAnn Ackerson lit a candle in memory of Timothy Floyd Hill

JoAnn Ackerson - August 28, 2018 at 10:27 PM

 Ruby
Lindsey

“ Ruby Lindsey lit a candle in memory of Timothy Floyd Hill

Ruby Lindsey - August 28, 2018 at 09:24 PM

AW

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm praying for comfort for your family during this most difficult time (2Cor 1:3,4)

A Williams - August 28, 2018 at 05:30 PM