

Timothy Brian Peterson

January 6, 1960 - October 12, 2022

Timothy Brian Peterson, a backwoods quiet party animal, passed away October 12, 2022. Tim, 62, of Charlotte, was born January 6, 1960 in Lansing to David and Norma (Coffee) Peterson. He described himself as a redneck, loved playing the guitar with his grandkids. He was generous and always "had your back." Tim loved to try to dance, enjoyed bowling, spending time with his grandkids on his "wheelie," and was a diehard Dale Earnhardt Fan. So much so a fan, that when Dale passed away, Tim conducted his very own funeral for Dale, the Intimidator. Annual Mackinaw City trips complete with sightseeing, to put his feet in the water, and his very own fudge. He was employed by the Lansing State Journal as a delivery person, and had his CB handle as "Snow Eagle." The MSU Spartans were his favored team. His redneck jokes and goofy sense of humor will be missed by all.

Timothy is survived by his mother, Norma; long-time companion, Dyann Saal; children, Timothy John (Lyndsay Stone) Peterson, Jessica (Erick) Carnell, Matthew Peterson, Thomas Peterson, Kristi (Joshua Meddaugh) Saal, and Beth (Kyle Meddaugh) Saal; special adopted children, Kyle DeWitt and Brianna; siblings, Russell (Mendy) Peterson, Michael (Christen Harding) Peterson, and Jeanine (Bryan) Brink, fourteen grandchildren; and very special best friend, James Sanders. He was predeceased by his sister, Dawn Williams; father, David; grandparents; and in-laws, Ralph and Barbara Plaunt.
