

Travis Randall Kelley

May 25, 1972 - June 22, 2019

Travis Randall Kelley, an Amazing Dad, Loving Son and Awesome Brother, of Olivet, died Saturday, June 22, 2019 after a short illness. Travis, 47, was born May 25, 1972, to Randy and Debra (Attwell) Kelley. Following graduation from Charlotte High School in 1990 Travis started his work in the automotive/auto body repair industry. Travis is well known for his body shop Precision Collision in Olivet that he has co-owned for 17 years with his business partner Ricky Southern. He is very talented with his ability to paint. Motocross was a strong passion for Travis as well; a passion that he passed down to his boys. Travis and his boys traveled around the state to races. Some of his hobbies included bass fishing, splitting wood, deer hunting, mushroom hunting and most importantly spending time with his family. His proudest achievement most recently would be his sobriety for the past 4 years. Travis was very faithful in attending his meetings and also took charge and led the meetings. Travis's family will always remember him for being a gentle soul who was always willing to help others.

Travis is survived by his sons, Dillon (Grace) Kelley, Brendan Kelley; grandchildren, Ella LaPoint, Weslee Kelley; girlfriend, Wendy LaPoint and her children, Brittney Hamilton and Brandon (Kelsie) LaPoint; parents, Randy and Debra; siblings, Jennifer Skinner, Sean Kelley; grandfather, Henry Attwell; and numerous nieces, nephews, and very close friends. He was predeceased by grandparents, Max and Doris Kelley, Norene Attwell, Shirley Attwell; sister-in-law, Amanda Kelley; his son's mother, Stacy "Tracy" Christenson; Aunt, Yvonne Kelley; Uncle, John Attwell and several other aunts and uncles.
