

Travis John Morrissey

November 11, 1976 - February 26, 2023

Travis John Morrissey, 46, a man of many talents and love for the outdoors, died unexpectedly on Sunday, February 26, 2023 in Grand Rapids. Travis was born November 11, 1976, in Lansing, the son of John Rex and Sharon Lee (Stump) Morrissey. He graduated from Grand Ledge High School before opening up his own entrepreneurship, TJ Services. He enjoyed the freedom to work how and when he wanted, which allowed him plenty of time to ride his beloved motorcycle. In fact, Travis and his brother, Brian, put over 13,000 miles on their bikes in one summer. Travis loved his toys. He also rode snowmobiles all over the U.P. His love for the outdoors lead him to live on Drummond Island for nearly 10 years. Recently, he loved to captain his pontoon boat, ferrying his family and friends up and down the Grand River. Above all, Travis loved his family.

Travis is survived by his three children; Tyler (Natalie) Morrissey, Dustin Morrissey and Deasia Morrissey; parents, John (Cindy) Morrissey and Sharon (Jerry Cody) Matthews; sisters, Amy Hicks and Bethany (Rachel) Ackley; brothers, Brian Morrissey and Chris (Catherine) Ackley; grandmothers, Bettie Morrissey and Carol Prince; many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins; and his special friend, Jen.

“ My greatst memory of Travis will always be his beautiful smile at the annual family Christmas party. I was blessed to take photos of all the Morrisseys a number of years and Travis' smile shined most brightly when I took pictures with him and his children and with his Dad, Cindy and all 5 of their adult kids together. His love for his family, all the fun and laughter they shared, was so heartwarming to watch. You will be missed greatly Travis ♡ We love you, Trix & Doug
