

Una Nadine Gloor

May 21, 1924 - August 31, 2012

Mrs. Nadine (Parthun) Gloor, age 88, of Charlotte, Michigan, died August 31, 2012 at Eaton Community Palliative Care. She was born in LaPorte County, Indiana to Edward and May (Lowe) Parthun.

Nadine graduated high school in La Porte and, on October 25, 1944, married the love of her life, Marlin Gloor. Together they raised two sons. Nadine was a wonderful mother and homemaker and enjoyed baking cookies, going to her lake home in Gowen and being with her family. She painted scenery on saw blades and clocks. She also enjoyed watching birds at the bird feeders in her yard and traveling throughout the continental United States and Canada.

Nadine is survived by her husband, Marlin; her sons Edward (Charlotte) Gloor of Holland, PA and David (Michelle) Gloor of Charlotte; brother, Walter Parthun of LaPorte, IN and sister, Dorothy Gregory of South Bend, IN; 4 grandchildren, Richard Gloor, Sandy Zeidman, Nicholas Gloor, and Allen Gloor; and 5 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother Willard Parthun, and sister Marcile Purkal, sister Anne Russ, brother Conrad Fail, and brother William Fail. Graveside service will be held on Tuesday, September 4, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. at Maple Hill Cemetery, Charlotte, MI with Reverend Perry Purcell officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to Eaton Community Palliative Care. Condolences, pictures, and stories about Nadine may be left on the website at www.prayfuneral.com.

Arrangements are being handled by Pray Funeral Home, 401 W. Seminary Street, Charlotte, MI.
