“ *Vickie,
I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. I just came across this today.
I loved your parents. They were so kind to me.
I don't know if you remember me. I use to pick you up on Saturday mornings to take you to the shooting range.
My name was Pam Franklin.
Best wishes to you.
Sorry for the loss of both of your parents.*

“ I will always remember Vickie for her constant smile, positive outlook, and cheerfulness . She loved to joke with us, share her stories about her family and especially her granddaughter, and delighted in listening about our families as well. She enjoyed life and did not let anything stop her from doing so. It was a blessing to have known her. May you feel peace and comfort from your memories, knowing she touched the heart and lives of many people!

“ You came into our lives a blessing for Jerry. You became an important part of our lives. We’ve been through so much together. Lots of good times and celebrations. We’ve comforted each other in grief. It is hard to think of you and Jerry both gone. A gift to know you are with Jerry again.

Michelle it is so hard to lose a parent and even harder to lose both. You will be in our thoughts as you face important days ahead. Always know they would have stayed with you forever if they could have. Love Uncle Bob and Aunt Jackie.
