“Ginnie had the office across the hall while we worked in the MSP Executive Division. She had a canny way of cutting through the superfluous and getting to the basics, across many projects. She was great at clearing clutter. She did it all with a sharp sense of humor that made the days enjoyable. The wisdom she shared with me helped immensely at the time.

Fly high Ginnie,

“I first met Jinnie when we were both working for the Michigan State Police. We became friends and have stayed in touch through the decades. She called me last week to tell me about her condition. It was the best talk ever. We were able to tell each other how much we meant to each other. She was strong, kind, caring, and loved her family and friends so much. Rest in peace, dear friend! I will always cherish our memories.
