

Virginia Tenney

March 17, 1933 - December 12, 2004

Virginia Marie (Hunter) (Anthony) (Epler) Tenney, formerly of Battle Creek, moved to Geneva, AL in 1985, was born March 17, 1933, in Battle Creek, MI to Earl and Lodema (Baldwin) Hunter. She passed away on Sunday, December 12 after a brief illness. She married Elwin (Gene) Epler April 15, 1967. Her home church was Harris Chapel in Gritney, FL. She is preceded in death by her son Carry Loren Anthony in Germany in 1977, followed closely by her father. Also, her husband Elwin (Gene) Epler, her mother Lodema, a sister Janet (Hunter) Weaver, and her very special friend Roy Legear in 2000. She enjoyed taking people to doctors, hospitals, grocery stores and shopping, helping through grieving times and traveling. She also loved to dance and spending time with her friends and loved ones, always greeting us with a big hug and kiss and she never failed to say, "I love you" to any of us. Surviving are two daughters, Linda (Anthony) Waling and husband Lloyd of Kalamazoo, MI, Christy (Anthony) Rose and husband Ellery of Battle Creek, MI, two sons William (Bill) Anthony and wife Alene of Tennessee, and Dennis Anthony and wife Cece of Geneva, AL, 10 grandchildren, Dustin Waling and Brandy (Waling) Nelson, Ginger (Rose) Bonney and Ellery Rose, Billy Anthony and Katie (Anthony) Norris, Stephannie (Airhart) Howard and Nichole Airhart, Olivia Anthony, and Nicole Thoma, and eight great grandchildren with two more on the way. Also surviving are three sisters, Irene Riley of Arkansas, Jeanie Wells and husband Bob of Indiana, Brenda Epler and husband Kerry of Arkansas, two brothers Norman Hunter and wife Susie of Battle Creek, MI, and Kent Hunter of Washington state, several cousins, nieces, and nephews. Services will be in Charlotte, MI at Pray Funeral Home on Friday, December 17, 2004 at 2:00 p.m. with burial at West Penfield Cemetery in Battle Creek, MI with Pastor Art Salsbury officiating.