“ My Dad was a man that when you meet him, you would never be able to forget. He was kind-hearted, loving, and very caring. It would not matter if he knew you or not, he would help you, give the shirt off his back if that was all he had. He would never turn anyone away if they need his help.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Walleys passing. Even though I never really spent much time with him, just Fridays when he and Alice came to pick up papers, I always looked forward to his quick wit and sense of humor.
