“ Bill and I were very good friends, our group has lost many members over the years. I regret I cannot be present to render my many memories of our adventures while in school and even after. Please know that you, the family of Bill are in our prayers. I remember our 50th class reunion when Bill first learned that I was a minister as well as my career in the Air Force. It really surprised him. I cherish these memories of growing up in Charlotte and the many friends I had. God will give you the strength you need.
Sincerely, Leonard and Gayle Shults, Montgomery,Alabama
