“ I cared for Zack off and on over the past 5 years. He loved having a lollipop to suck . I would give him a choice of clothes and he would blink his eyes for his choice. Zack is missed but God has made him well now!!

“ Penny,

You are one of the most amazing women I know. You have given so much of yourself so that zach could have the best quality of life possible. I saw you make sacrifice after sacrifice so that he could have everything he needed and the things you wanted him to have. You were meticulous about every aspect of his care and you expected us nurses to be just as great of caregivers as you were to Zach! Someday there will be a crown waiting for you in Heaven. I know there's a hole in your heart now but sometimes

“ Zachary was such a special boy!! The first day I came to his home to see if I would be a good Nurse for his Multiple Medical needs , I Insaw his big brown eyes and right then he took a piece of my heart and has had it ever since for 5 years. His sense of humor kept me laughing, his love was unconditional, and he loved to watch his bible story movies and spongebob. I feel a huge void now that he's with Jesus, we don't understand why he had to leave so soon , but we do k ow that God is Good and God always does Right!! I thank him for the time I had with Zach it was life changing. I miss you Zach (my lil hunny!)
